

GRAPE ESCAPES CELEBRATES THE LATEST FRENCH MICHELIN GUIDE RELEASE WITH A 9* EXTRAVAGANZA

Following the recent release of the new French Michelin guide, Grape Escapes have decided to launch a brand new gastronomic tour, focusing on no less than THREE triple Michelin-starred restaurants!

On this luxurious seven day/ six night break, guests will have the opportunity to experience the finest French hospitality in Champagne, Burgundy and the Rhône Valley. Three top hotels have been hand-picked for this package, ensuring the very best welcome for lovers of wine and gastronomy.

The trip offers two nights' bed and breakfast accommodation at 5* L'Assiette Champenoise in Champagne, two nights spent at 4* Maison Lameloise nestled in the Burgundy vineyards, and two nights in Valence at 5* Maison Pic. All three hotels are renowned for their triple Michelin-starred restaurants, headed up by celebrated chefs and recognised as producers of some of the best gourmet cuisine in France!

The tour offers guests the opportunity to discover the wines of each region, as well as delight in the gastronomic offerings of each of these restaurants. The package includes three full day private chauffeured day tours – one in each region – exploring the wineries of the area, and tasting the excellent wines produced there. Highlights include a private Dom Pérignon tour at the Moët estate, the unique opportunity to dine at a Champagne House for a gourmet lunch, an extensive tasting session of no less than six wines at the prestigious M Chapoutier, and a vineyard workshop and lunch in the famed appellation of Puligny-Montrachet.

For lovers of food and wine, there really could be no better holiday! All transfers between the regions are included, and prices start at £3113 per person, based on four people travelling together.
